

REBOOTING CANADA'S COMMUNICATIONS — LEGISLATION —

Date: Friday, May 22nd, 2015 and Saturday, May 23rd, 2015

Time: 8:30am – 5:30pm

Location: University of Ottawa, Faculty of Social Sciences Building, Room 4007

This two-day policy and law conference will focus on Canada's broadcasting and telecommunications legislation and will consider whether these statutes should be updated to reflect the 21st century communications environment.

Challenges to be discussed include:

- Communications sovereignty and new content distribution services
- Canadian socio-cultural objectives in the contemporary communications context
- Lessons learned over the past 50 years of CRTC regulation
- CRTC enforcement, fair process and public participation
- Employment issues and changing technologies
- Concentration of media ownership
- The ethics of advocacy in a regulated sector

For further detailed information please refer to the official website for Rebooting Canada's Communication Legislation at: <http://frpc.net/events/may-2015-conference/>

SPECIAL REGISTRATION RATES FOR FACULTY AND STUDENTS!