Dear Mr. Lynn,

Re: Access to Information Request concerning the Native Broadcasting Policy

Pursuant to sections 4(1) and 6 of Canada's Access to Information Act, R.S., 1985, c. A-1, I am asking for information concerning the CRTC's Native Broadcasting Policy, Public Notice CRTC 1990-89 (Ottawa, 20 September 1990). Specifically, I am asking for any reports, studies, research, analyses, briefing materials, or memos of or commissioned by the CRTC about the implementation of Public Notice CRTC 1990-89.

Please note that I am not seeking information that has been published by the CRTC (such as that contained within the CRTC's Communications Monitoring Reports or other studies that are available on the CRTC's website).

My cheque for $5.00 is attached.

If you have any questions or envisage any difficulties meeting my request, please do not hesitate to let me know.

I look forward to hearing from you within thirty days pursuant to section 7(a) of the Access to Information Act.

Sincerely yours,

Monica Auer

Dear Mrs. Auer:

This is further to your request under the Access to Information Act (the Act), received on April 12, 2012, for the following documents:

"I am asking for information concerning the CRTC's Native Broadcasting Policy, Public Notice CRTC 1990-89 (Ottawa, 20 September 1990). Specifically, I am asking for any reports, studies, research, analyses, briefing materials, or memos of or commissioned by the CRTC about the implementation of Public Notice CRTC 1990-89.

Please, note that I am not seeking information that has been published by the CRTC (such as that contained within the CRTC's Communications Monitoring Reports or other studies that are available on the CRTC's website)."

No information was found relating to your request.

Please be advised that the Access to Information Act provides requestors with the right to file a complaint regarding the CRTC's administration of the Act. Should you wish to file a complaint, you must do so within 60 days of the date of this letter by writing to the Information Commissioner at the following address:

Information Commissioner
